

REGULATIONS

IX International Scientific Conference "Avant-Garde and War"

September 17-19, 2024

("Regulations")

Date and Duration

1. These Regulations define the rights and obligations of the Participants of the IX International Scientific Conference "Avant-Garde and War" (hereinafter referred to as the "Conference"), which will take place on September 17-19, 2024, in-person in Krakow at the Jagiellonian University, in locations indicated by the Organizer on the Conference website eam9.confer.uj.edu.pl.
2. The Organizer of the Conference is Jagiellonian University (Faculty of Polish Studies), ul. Gołębia 24, 31-007 Krakow (hereinafter referred to as the "Organizer").
3. A Participant of the Conference is any adult person with full legal capacity, who by July 17, 2024, has expressed a willingness to participate in the Conference in the manner described in § 2 of the Regulations, has accepted the terms of participation in the Conference as mentioned in the Regulations, and has received a confirmation of qualification to participate from the Organizer (hereinafter referred to as the "Participant").
4. The Regulations are made available to Participants on the Conference website: eam9.confer.uj.edu.pl (hereinafter referred to as the "Conference Website"), in both Polish and English versions, in a manner that allows them to be downloaded.
5. The Organizer reserves the right to amend the Regulations due to changes in universally applicable laws and the need to adapt the Regulations to such changes, particularly to adjust the Conference format to the restrictions, mandates, and prohibitions related to the introduction of a pandemic state or epidemic threat, and to increase the safety measures accompanying the Conference. Changes to the Regulations will come into force within 7 days of their publication on the Conference Website. For Participants who accepted the Regulations before the change, the change will take effect within 7 days from the notification of the change via email, provided they do not object to the change within the aforementioned period.
6. The Organizer reserves the right to amend the Regulations also in cases where such changes do not negatively affect the Participants' rights or involve correcting obvious clerical and editorial errors. In such cases, changes to the Regulations may come into force within a period shorter than 7 days, but not shorter than 3 days from notifying the Participants of the change via email, provided they do not object to the change within the aforementioned period.
7. The Organizer reserves the right to change the date and format of the Conference if holding it on the date and in the form mentioned in paragraph 1 above becomes impossible or excessively difficult due to reasons beyond the Organizer's control, particularly due to restrictions, mandates, and prohibitions related to the introduction of a pandemic state or epidemic threat. Any change in the date or format of the Conference will be promptly announced on the Conference Website.

8. The Organizer reserves the right to introduce changes to the Conference program, including changes to the schedule and order of presentations. In the event of such changes, the Organizer will promptly inform about them on the Conference Website. Changes to the Conference program do not constitute changes to the Regulations.

Registration for Participation in the Conference

1. Participation in the Conference is subject to a fee and requires prior registration through the application and registration form (hereinafter referred to as the "Form") available on the Conference Website. In the Form, the person wishing to participate in the Conference must provide the following information: first and last name, academic degree/title, email address, affiliation, phone number, information necessary for the organization of catering and the banquet during the Conference, and optionally, information enabling the implementation of solutions for persons with disabilities to participate in the sessions. A person who, during registration for the Conference, declared in the Form their intention to actively participate by preparing and presenting a presentation, must also provide: the title of the proposed presentation, the chosen thematic block or proposed block in which the presentation would be delivered, and a short bio.

2. Detailed instructions for registering for the Conference, registration deadlines, the amount of the registration fee (hereinafter referred to as the "Fee"), and the method of payment are provided on the Conference Website.

3. In case of withdrawal from participation in the Conference, the Participant is obliged to immediately inform the Organizer by sending an appropriate message to the email address: eam9@uj.edu.pl. A Participant who withdraws from participation in the Conference by July 31, 2024, as described in this section, will have the Fee refunded by the Organizer (bank fees are non-refundable). Withdrawal from participation after this date will result in no refund of the Fee paid by the Participant. Fee refunds will be processed by the Organizer after the conclusion of the Conference.

4. Through the Form, the Participant can declare their intention to participate in accompanying events of the Conference, such as the banquet, which will take place on September 18, 2024 (hereinafter referred to as the "Banquet"). Detailed information on the time and place of the Banquet will be provided on the Conference Website.

5. The Organizer is not responsible for any incorrect or false data provided by the Participant during the registration for the Conference.

6. A maximum of 250 Participants can attend the Conference, and a maximum of 120 Participants can attend the Banquet (hereinafter referred to as the "Banquet Participants"). Acceptance of registration for participation in the Conference and/or Banquet is determined by the order of registration. The Participant will receive an email from the Organizer confirming or not confirming their qualification to participate in the Conference and/or the Banquet.

7. The participant limits for the Conference and Banquet mentioned in section 6 above may change due to the epidemiological situation during the Conference and related restrictions, mandates, and prohibitions. Any changes to the participant limits will be promptly announced on the Conference Website. If it becomes necessary to limit the number of Conference and Banquet Participants, the Organizer will re-qualify Participants within the available limits, taking into account the order of their registrations. The Organizer will notify via email those Participants who, due to the change in limits, will not be able to participate in the Conference and/or the Banquet.

8. By registering for participation in the Conference, the person confirms that they have read and accepted the provisions of the Regulations, which is equivalent to granting the permissions, licenses, and authorizations mentioned in the Regulations, and constitutes an obligation to pay the Fee. Registration for participation in the Conference is completed when the Participant's data is filled out in the Form and submitted along with the consents mentioned in §§ 5-6 of the Regulations via the Form on the Conference Website.

9. The Participant secures a place in the Conference and/or Banquet upon receiving confirmation of qualification for participation in the Conference, and after paying the Fee.

General Rules of Participation in the Conference

1. During the Conference, there will be key-note lectures (hereinafter referred to as "Lectures") delivered by speakers invited by the Organizer (hereinafter referred to as "Speakers"), and panels (hereinafter referred to as "Panels") including presentations (hereinafter referred to as "Presentations") and discussions involving presenters (hereinafter referred to as "Presenters") selected by the Organizer in the manner specified in § 5 paragraphs 1 and 3-4 of the Regulations. The Conference will be conducted in English. Detailed information and the exact Conference program are available on the Conference Website.

2. After the conclusion of the Lectures and Panels, Participants may express their intention to ask questions. Considering the planned duration of the Lectures and Panels, as well as the Conference schedule, the Organizer will decide on the number and content of the questions to be asked.

3. The proceedings of the Conference will not be recorded, either in the form of a photo report or as an audio-video recording.

4. When providing Conference materials (hereinafter referred to as "Conference Materials") to Participants, the Organizer emphasizes the necessity for Participants to respect intellectual property rights. Participants agree to use the Conference Materials provided by the Organizer exclusively for their personal use. Modifying, copying, transmitting, publicly performing, and any commercial use of these Conference Materials requires prior written consent from the Organizer or another authorized entity. Participants bear full responsibility for any damages resulting from behavior contrary to the above stipulation.

5. Participants accept the established rules and program of the Conference and commit not to influence any changes to it or disrupt the proceedings of the Conference. The Organizer is entitled to exclude Participants from the Conference who violate the provisions of the Regulations, particularly those who:

- a) disrupt the proceedings of the Conference;
- b) engage in actions that are illegal, unethical, or harm the legitimate interests of third parties;
- c) engage in actions aimed at circumventing or attempting to circumvent the Regulations or the rules of the Conference;
- d) engage in actions that violate the legitimate interests of the Organizer or harm its image.

Rights and Responsibilities of Participants and Banquet Participants

1. Upon arrival at the Conference venue, the Participant is required to confirm their personal attendance at the Conference at the reception desk located in the building where the Conference will take place.
2. On-site Participants and Banquet Participants are required to comply with safety rules, health and safety regulations, and fire safety regulations in force at the venues where the Conference and Banquet are organized, as well as the sanitary regime rules in effect at that time.
3. The Organizer is not responsible for items left behind and lost during the Conference and/or Banquet, or for items left in clothing, backpacks/bags/suitcases, as well as in other publicly accessible places at the Conference venue, Jagiellonian University, and the Banquet venue.
4. In case of a Participant disrupting public order and safety or failing to comply with the sanitary regime rules in effect on the day of the Conference, Conference personnel are authorized to:
 - a) call upon the Participant to behave appropriately;
 - b) request the Participant to leave the Conference premises;
 - c) call the appropriate services if the Participant's behavior warrants such intervention, particularly if it poses a threat to other Participants, Conference personnel, or the Organizer's property.
5. The Organizer is not liable for incidents resulting from Participants' non-compliance with the Regulations, disregard for the Organizer's recommendations, or failure to follow the instructions of Conference personnel and security services.
6. To ensure safety at the Conference venue, the Organizer may use surveillance covering the entire Conference area as well as its specific parts. The rules for using surveillance by the Organizer are defined in Order No. 34 of the Rector of Jagiellonian University dated May 16, 2019, regarding the Video Surveillance Regulations at Jagiellonian University, as amended, available in the Public Information Bulletin of Jagiellonian University.
7. If a Participant notices a threat to the life and health of other Participants, they are obliged to immediately inform the Conference personnel.

Lectures, Presentations, Post-Conference Publication

1. By registering for the Conference via the Form available on the Conference Website eam9.confer.uj.edu.pl, the registrant may notify the Organizer of their intention to prepare and present a Presentation during the Conference. Submissions are accepted until June 17, 2024.
2. A person who has accepted the Organizer's invitation to participate in the Conference as a Speaker will deliver a Lecture during the Conference. The Speaker is required to register for the Conference according to the terms outlined in the Regulations and, no later than July 15, 2024, by 23:59, must send the Organizer an email at eam9@uj.edu.pl with a digital Word file containing an original abstract of the Lecture they intend to present at the Conference (hereinafter referred to as the "Abstract").

3. A person who has expressed their willingness to prepare and present a Presentation via the Form must, no later than June 30, 2024, by 23:59, send the Organizer an email at eam9@uj.edu.pl with a digital Word file containing an original abstract of the Presentation they intend to present at the Conference (hereinafter referred to as the "Abstract"). No later than July 15, 2024, the Organizer will select Presenters based on the submitted Abstracts and will inform Participants whose Abstracts have been accepted by July 31, 2024, via email. Further communication to prepare for the Conference will be conducted as agreed between the Presenter and the Organizer.
4. In making the decisions referred to in paragraph 3 above, the Organizer will exercise its discretion and consider the necessity of ensuring the scientific quality and thematic diversity of the Conference. The Organizer's decision is final and does not require justification, and Participants have no right to appeal.
5. By registering for the Conference via the Form available on the Conference Website eam9.confer.uj.edu.pl, the registrant/participant confirming their active participation in the Conference must send the Organizer a short bio (hereinafter referred to as the "Biography").
6. Taking the actions referred to in paragraphs 1-5 above constitutes granting the Organizer a non-exclusive license to use the Abstract and Biography, to the extent and in the fields of exploitation mentioned in § 6 paragraphs 5-7 of the Regulations. This license is granted particularly for the purposes of selecting Presenters, preparing, organizing, conducting, and settling the Conference, developing Conference Materials, and making electronic versions of Abstracts and Biographies available on the Conference Website. The provisions of § 6 paragraphs 1-3 and 8 of the Regulations apply accordingly to the Abstract and Biography.
7. The presentation of the Lecture/Presentation and the granting of permissions, authorizations, and licenses to the Organizer, as referred to in § 5-6 of the Regulations, for the use of the Lecture/Presentation, Abstract, and Biography, to the extent and in all fields of exploitation indicated therein, is free of charge and is done for the statutory purposes of the Organizer.
8. Granting the Organizer permissions, licenses, and authorizations, as referred to in § 5-6 of the Regulations, is voluntary but necessary for presenting the Lecture/Presentation.
9. After the Conference, the Editorial Committee appointed by the Organizer (hereinafter referred to as the "Committee") will select 50 individuals (hereinafter referred to as the "Authors") from among the Speakers and Presenters, who will be asked to prepare a post-conference article (hereinafter referred to as the "Article"), based on their delivered Lecture or Presentation, for the purposes of a post-conference publication (hereinafter referred to as the "Publication"), which will be published in print by Koninklijke Brill B.V., headquartered in Leiden, Netherlands (hereinafter referred to as the "Publisher").
10. In selecting the Authors, the Committee will be guided by substantive criteria, particularly the scientific level, stylistic correctness, and linguistic accuracy of the Lectures and Presentations delivered during the Conference. The Committee will select the Authors by October 30 at the latest, and will inform them of their decision via email by November 15 at the latest. The Committee's decision is final and does not require justification, and Participants have no right to appeal or claim to have their Article included in the Publication.
11. The Organizer will provide the Publisher with the names and contact details of the Authors, as well as the titles of the Lectures and Presentations delivered by them during the Conference.

Further actions related to the publishing process, particularly the submission of Articles to the Publisher, will be conducted directly between the Authors and the Publisher.

Copyright

1. The Speaker/Presenter bears full responsibility for the form and content of the Lecture/Presentation.

2. The Speaker/Presenter undertakes to develop and present an original Lecture/Presentation and guarantees that the Lecture/Presentation will not infringe the rights and personal interests of third parties, contain theses and views inciting hatred or discrimination against any person based on race, culture, ethnicity, religion, belief, or gender. Furthermore, it is prohibited to promote ideologies and symbols associated with totalitarian regimes, as well as present any other topics prohibited by applicable law or that damage the good name of the Organizer.

3. If any part of the Lecture/Presentation includes legally protected elements for which the rights do not belong to the Speaker/Presenter, the Speaker/Presenter guarantees that they are entitled to use them to the extent necessary for the presentation of the Lecture/Presentation and to grant the Organizer the license referred to in this paragraph, without the need for the Organizer to obtain additional consents and permissions.

4. Upon starting the presentation of the Lecture/Presentation, the Speaker/Presenter grants the Organizer a non-exclusive license to present the Lecture/Presentation at the Conference, in conjunction with elements chosen by the Organizer, including other Lectures/Presentations, images, and sounds.

5. The Speaker/Presenter grants the Organizer a non-exclusive, time-unlimited, geographically unrestricted, quantitatively and qualitatively unrestricted license with the right to grant sublicenses with the same scope, to use the Abstract and Biography - in whole or in part, independently or as part of a collective work, in conjunction with works and elements chosen by the Organizer (including other Lectures/Presentations, Abstracts, Biographies of other Speakers/Presenters, images, and sounds, including within so-called Conference Materials and abstract books available on the Conference Website), as well as its adaptations and adaptations - for informational, documentation, educational, didactic purposes, publication, advertising, and promotion of the Organizer and the Conference itself, including but not limited to their use and availability on the Internet, Intranet, as well as within any telecommunications services using any systems and devices, especially on all social networking sites of UJ, on UJ Websites, on the Conference Website.

6. The license referred to in paragraph 5 above (hereinafter referred to as the "License") is granted to the Organizer: with respect to the Abstract - upon sending the Abstract of the Lecture/Presentation to the Organizer, with respect to the Biography - upon sending the Biography to the Organizer, in accordance with the provisions of § 5 paragraphs 1, 2, and 5 of the Regulations, and includes the use of the Abstract/Biography in the following fields of exploitation:

a) recording and reproducing the Abstract/Biography – producing copies of the Abstract/Biography using any available techniques, including printing, reprographic, magnetic recording, and digital techniques (including DVDs, magneto-optical carriers);

b) permanent or temporary reproduction of the Abstract/Biography in whole or in part by any means and in any form;

c) distribution of the Abstract/Biography – public performance, exhibition, display, playback, and broadcasting and re-broadcasting, as well as public access to the Abstract/Biography in such a way that anyone can access it at a place and time of their choice using any available techniques, including use on the Internet, Intranet, and other computer networks, posting and modifying the Abstract/Biography on websites, in social networking services, broadcasting the Abstract/Biography via multimedia and telecommunication networks, modifications of the Abstract/Biography allowing the creation of website navigation, public access at public exhibitions or expositions;

d) trading the original or copies on which the Abstract/Biography is fixed – introducing to trade, lending, or renting the original or copies;

e) creating and distributing derivative works of the Abstract/Biography, including further projects/materials based on the Abstract/Biography or its individual elements, including developing different graphic, color, or visual or spatial format versions of the Abstract/Biography and using such derived works to the extent and in all fields of exploitation specified in this paragraph;

f) re-broadcasting, distributing in the press, on the Internet, on large-format posters, and in all other forms of promotion or advertising;

g) modifying the Abstract/Biography in whole or in part and making adaptations in whole or in part, including the right to correct, remake, and change the whole Abstract/Biography or its individual elements;

7. The License also includes the right for the Organizer and persons acting on its behalf to exercise derivative rights to the Abstract and Biography in all fields of exploitation mentioned in paragraphs 5-6 above, including in particular the right to make changes to the Abstract/Biography and create adaptations, use and dispose of derivative works, and the right to authorize third parties to exercise the derivative copyrights to the Abstract/Biography to the extent similar to that enjoyed by the Organizer.

8. The Speaker/Presenter undertakes not to exercise against the Organizer and entities authorized by the Organizer, their moral rights to the Lecture/Presentation, including the right to the integrity of the content and form of the Lecture/Presentation and its fair use, the right to decide on the first public disclosure of the Lecture/Presentation, the right to supervise the manner of use of the Lecture/Presentation, and the right to decide on the manner of attributing the authorship of the Lecture/Presentation, provided that the Organizer, at the Speaker's request and as far as possible, will respect the Speaker's wish to be credited as the presenter of the Lecture/Presentation.

9. In the event that third parties submit claims against the Organizer and/or entities acting on its behalf and/or entities authorized by the Organizer to use the Abstract (collectively referred to as the "Authorized Entities"), related to the Lecture/Presentation and/or Abstract, Biography, or their individual elements, the Speaker/Presenter:

a) will release the Organizer and/or the Authorized Entities from such claims, to the extent that the Speaker/Presenter was obliged to acquire from third parties the rights to legally protected elements of the Lecture/Presentation and/or Abstract, Biography, including copyright and related rights to exercise and authorize the exercise of derivative rights to them and their individual elements, and to obtain the consents and authorizations referred to in this paragraph, and

b) will bear full responsibility for any damages incurred by the Organizer and/or the Authorized Entities due to claims mentioned above, including but not limited to, damages related to a claim for compensation for unauthorized use of the Lecture/Presentation and/or Abstract, Biography, or unauthorized use of their individual elements.
